“Comparison Rate Schedule”

First Start Housing Loan
Date of Issue: 1st February 2008

What is a Comparison Rate Schedule?

A “Comparison Rate Schedule” is a requirement of the Uniform Consumer Credit Code legislation. As from 1st July 2003, all lenders are required to provide information about Comparison Rates to all prospective Home Loan clients. The schedule is designed to allow prospective clients to accurately compare the cost of a loan in relation to other products available. All fees and charges applicable to the loan product that are ascertainable at the outset of the loan are included. These are then converted to an interest rate reflecting the cost of the loan.

It is important to note that the costs associated with Lenders Mortgage Insurance, if applicable to the loan, are not included in the Comparison Rate quoted. These cost are additional to the loan should they be applicable. Keystart does not require Lenders Mortgage Insurance on its loan products.
